

Meeting 28th and 29th september 2011

Culture and urbanism.

A gentrification inevitable?

As part of the project U-ZN lead by L'Usine, U.E.C.A and ARTfactories/Autre(s)pARTs worked together on setting days of discussion about the place of the culture in the urban planning. We are pleased to invite you to joint us for this days of sharing and discussion.

IMPORTANT : All the discusion will be in french.

WENESDAY 28th SEPTEMBER

13h Welcome of the participants

14h Introduction : Gentrification, a European problem ?

Gests : Claire Scohier - Inter Environnement Bruxelles

Luca Pattaroni - École polytechnique fédérale de Lausanne-

LaSur

Éric Chevance - ARTfactories/Autre(s)pARTs

Matthias Rick- Raum Labor- Berlin

Pier Schneider- 1024 architecture- Paris

Inura- Zurich

16h Workshops:

"Cultural fallow areas" and gentrification : the role of the artists

Jerome Massard- Klat, UECA-Genève

Jules desgouttes - Abi Abo-Friche Lamartine-Lyon

Joël Lécussan - Mix'Art Myrys-Toulouse

Philippe Fretz- Usine Kugler- Genève

People participation in the town-planning projects

Robin des villes-Lyon (sous réserve)

Forum Pointe de la jonction-Genève

Mélanie Labesse - Le Couac-Toulouse

Hossam Adly- École polytechnique fédérale de Lausanne- LaSur

18h30 Appetizer - Projections

THURSDAY 29th SEPTEMBER

9h30 Welcome of the participants

10h Workshops:

Wich urban strategy of gentrification ?

Inura - Zurich

Maud Le floch - Polau -Tours

Marie-Paule Thomas- École polytechnique fédérale de Lausanne-

LaSur

The alternatives ? How to fight againts this phenomenon ?

Philippe Foulquié - Friche la belle de mai/Théâtre Massalia-

Marseille

Pier Schneider 1024 architecture- Paris

Collectif Laps- Genève

Hossam Adly- École polytechnique fédérale de Lausanne- LaSur

UECA- Genève

14h Plenary discussion

18h Public debate

>MORE INFORMATIONS

